Traditional Learning Management Systems were designed as content repositories. With additional demands, features were "bolted on" to "keep score" on users, courses, roles, calendaring, messaging, notifications, certifications and grade keeping.

FocalPoint takes an entirely different approach. From the ground up, The LearningTree ALP is rooted in data collection and analysis - a wholistic "e-learning ecosystem" designed to:

▸ Organize disparate education technology and data
▸ Enable teaching & learning
▸ Facilitate learning communities with collaboration tools

Today, LearningTree integrates with 45 other world-class educational technologies, content and test bank partners, enabling over 2 million students in nine different countries with personalized pathways and differentiated instruction.
